MANY NEW ENTRANTS IN THE HERALD CONTEST

Hundreds Join the Competition for Handsome Prizes Display of Awards Attracts Many to Advocate's New Home.

Washington Herald's 12500 competition by the opening of the contest home at 116 Thirteenth Street Northwest, hundreds of persons have entered the race for the 350 matchless awards.

Last Wednesday the contest home was opened. The doors were thrown open, and the public was invited in. Inside had been arranged a portion of the swards. The readers of The Herald were given an opportunity to see for themselves whether or not the contest is worth entering. A single glance at the two floors crowded with articles of all kinds was sufficient.

The people saw that the awards were expensive and attractive, and that they were well worth striving for.

To Change Display.

To Change Display.

The awards are so numerous that it is impossible to display all of them at once in the building. In order that the public may be given an opportunity to examine all of the awards before the close of the contest, the articles on exhibition at The Advocate's headquarters will be changed from time to time. The articles on display are those which will be given away. They are too manifold to catalogue. The only way of appreciating them is to see them.

'Among the articles now on display are baby grand pianos, player planos, upright pianos, bicycles, brass beds, statuary, music cabinets, china closets, statuary, music cabinets, china closets.

There is no more effective remedy known for the permanent cure of all forms of kidney, bladder trouble, and rheumatism than this new scientific preparation, because it removes the cause. It soaks right into the kidneys, through the walls and linings, cleans the clogged-up pores, neutralizes and dissolves the poisonous uric acid and waste matter that lodge in the rible rheumatic pains, and makes the kidneys filter the poison from the blood and drives it out of the system. Three doses of Croxone a day, for a few days, is often all that is ever needed to cure the worst backache or overcome disagreeable urinary dis-most confidence that nothing on earth will so quickly cure the worst case of kidney bladder trouble, or rheumatism You will find Croxone different from all other remedies. There is nothing else like it. It is so prepared that it is practically impossible to take it into original package costs but a trifle at any first-class drug store, such as O'Donnell's Drug Store, Ninth and F Streets, who will personally return the purchase price if Croxone should fall in a single case.
